

An Event on Human Rights

The Network for Human Rights, Equality and Social Justice, the Association of Palestinian Arab Canadians (APAC), Independent Jewish Voices (IJV), the Palestinian Canadian Congress (PCC), Canadians for Justice and Peace in the Middle East (CJPME) invite you:

Free Film Screening: “Radiance of Resistance”

Winner, Best Documentary (2017 Belfast Human Rights Film Festival)

Sunday, May 27th, 2018 – 3:00 – 5:00 P.M.

@ OneCommunity, 251 Bank St. (at Cooper), 2nd Floor, OTTAWA

A brief discussion will follow the documentary screening. (#nakba70)

REGISTER via Eventbrite: <https://bit.ly/2raB8Ks>

Radiance of Resistance: Winner of Best Documentary at Respect Human Rights Festival in Belfast, Northern Ireland (2017). Radiance of Resistance tells the story of Palestinians Janna Ayyad, 9 years old, and Ahed Tamimi, 14 years old who have become global ambassadors for human rights. Janna and Ahed have gained international recognition for their creative resistance. Janna has been dubbed by The Guardian as the youngest journalist in Palestine. In 2012, Turkish President Erdogan awarded Ahed the 'Hanzala Courage Award'. NBC News Press said: “West Bank Teen Ahed Tamimi Becomes Poster Child for Palestinian Plight.”

The film is a full length documentary (59 minutes,) that includes grass roots footage from local Palestinian journalist Bilal Tamimi. Award winning Filmmakers Jesse Roberts (PUSH Tunisia) and Jesse Locke (AMZ Productions) journeyed to the region multiple times over the course of a year to capture the story.